

I have been a KLOVE listener for 4 years, it is unique and provides a great service in our community especially smaller and minority organizations that cannot afford airtime or other media expenses to announce their events and programs, KLOVE is free. KLOVE also provides a positive, encouraging alternative to the often negative assault on the airwaves today.